

26 February 2016

Colin Melvin
 Director
 Office of Commercial Services
 Queensland University of Technology

Dear Mr Melvin:

Re: Strengthening Entrepreneurship and Social Enterprise Capacity in Cambodia

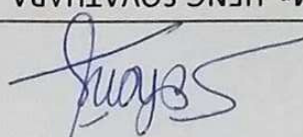

This is to state that the AgriToday supports this Australia Awards Fellowships (AAF) program. As such, please find below the Nominated and Reserve Fellows selected to participate in the following Fellowship, "Strengthening Entrepreneurship and Social Enterprise Capacity in Cambodia". The nominee(s) below were selected on the basis of their individual merits particularly based on the selection criteria that we have mutually agreed upon.

	Nominees
1	Mr KIM CHANTHOEUN
	Reserve/Alternate Nominees
2	Mr PANN KIMHOEUN

Please accept our sincere appreciation for your commitment to cooperate with us in our quest to Strengthen Entrepreneurship and Social Enterprise Capacity in Cambodia, particularly to improve economic opportunities for an emerging workforce. This Fellowship represents a new partnership with QUT, and is built on QUT's long-standing engagement with the public and private sectors in Cambodia as well as the non-governmental sector. We wish to re-assure you of our strong commitment to achieve the outcomes of this capacity building Activity.

Should the Australia Awards Fellowship be awarded to QUT, the AgriToday will ensure that the Fellows get the necessary cooperation and support in implementing any action plans developed during the Fellowship program.

Sincerely yours,

 Mr. HENG SOVATHARA
 Executive Director

